RED LETTER DAY FOR THE LOG CABIN

In Hardinsburg-Saturday's Convention a Warm Meet-Trains to the County Seat Were All Crowded--John P. Haswell Calls Republicans to Order in Court House.

BOTH SIDES ARE VERY BUSY.

The Republican Convention held at Hardinsburg last Saturday was a warm affair from start to finish. All trains coming in to Hardinsburg were loaded with delegates. No such a crowd of people, politicians, postmasters, revenue men, old soldiers and ex-postmasters has been seen in Hardinsburg for many a day. It was a red letter day for the politicians and office seekers.

Long before the time for convening the convention, the Court House was jammed, jammed and packed with Taft and Roosevelt delegates.

The Roosevelt forces formed on Main street, headed with a large, white banner, bearing the name of Roosevelt in large black letters. They marched into the Court House and took their places on the right-hand side of the aisle.

While they were forming on the outside and getting in line, the Taft followers had already captured most of the space in the court room, and many of the Roosevelt followers were unable to get in.

Soon as the Roosevelt fellows entered they saw what had happened. They were up against it.

Promptly at 1 o'clock the Hon. John P. Haswell called the convention to order. He pled for harmony and good order. He said against his will he was made Chairman of the County Committee. He didn't want it and would rather some one else had been selected. "But," said he, "I am proud of the honor and will do my best to give every man in the house a square deal."

Secretary A. R. Kincheloe read the call.

Jesse R. Eskridge leader of the Roosevelt forces was the first to get the ear of the Chairman. He offered a motion adjourning the convention to the east yard of the Court House where there was plenty of room and all the delegates could have a fair show and their votes counted as cast.

W. Sherman Ball, leader of the Taft forces, was on his feet in an instant and bitterly opposed the motion; and advised the Taft men to vote down the motion. Said there was plenty of room in the Court House; the move was useless and would take up too much time. The motion was lost.

Mr. Eskridge moved for a division of the house and that the vote be counted.

The Chairman granted his request and asked that all who were in favor of adjourning to the yard to take their stand on his left and those opposed to the motion to stand on his right. For a few minutes the house was in an uproar. Both sides calling for voters to come to them. Finally, by a hard rapping by the Chairman, quiet reigned and the Chairman appointed tellers to count the vote. But there was no counting. The tellers had to guess at it from the size of the crowd. They finally agreed that the motion was lost, and this created much dissatisfaction with the followers of Roosevelt.

Judge Ahl was then placed in nomination for permanent chairman. Cries of no! no! no! went up from the Taft side of the house and another wrangle.

R. L. Oelze, from the Taft side, put in nomination D. C. Heron.

Young Mr. Whittinghill mounted a table and seconded the nomination of Judge Ahl. He pled for his nomination and for Mr. Roosevelt. Said he was the greatest statesman in America and he wanted the convention to instruct for him. He gave Bradley a roast. Several other speeches were made, but amid so much confusion they could not be heard.

There was another call for a division of the house. The same tellers, two Roosevelt and two Taft men, mounted the stand and decided that Heron was elected.

Mr. Heron took the chair, thanked the convention for the honor bestowed, and said some men are born great and some near great. Only Kentuckians are great, and the greatest of all Kentuckians are Breckenridge county people. In the course of his remarks, he took occasion to roast Judge O'Rear for the part he had been taking in this campaign. He boosted Taft and asked the pleasure of the convention.

Rolley Meador was elected secretary over D. B. Phelps.

The chair then appointed J. N.

WORST IS OVER IN FLOODED AREA

Break Is Widening In Reelfoot Country, But Situation At Hickman Better--Refugees Brought In.

LOSS HAS BEEN ENORMOUS

Hickman, Ky., April 8.—Although the gap in the government levee over the Reelfoot Lake country has widened to 1,000 feet, no other breaks have occurred and it is now believed the levee will not be a total loss, as it was at first feared.

As a result of the break the water has fallen eight feet in Hickman, and although more land has been flooded in the country below here the situation so far as suffering of the flood victims goes remains practically unchanged.

A number of houses have been swept away throughout the flooded district, fourteen having been washed away at one point in Kentucky twenty miles below here, where much of the bluff overlooking the river there has caved in.

Many houses between here and Mabel, twelve miles below, have been ruined. Nearly all of these houses are occupied by negroes and the houses were of the flimsy variety. The occupants escaped, many of them being rescued by the steamer, May Stewart, which arrived here from that district.

Other boats were immediately sent out following the arrival of the May Stewart and they will pick up all those who have taken refuge on the high ground.

Owing to the fact that five launches tied in a float got away during the darkness there has been a shortage of boats to engage in rescue work, but it is believed practically all the people who have been marooned by the flood will be brought in before the end of the day.

CLOVERPORT COMMERCIAL CLUB

Making Efforts To Get Rolling Farm School To Come To Cloverport--May Have Exhibit Here Next Thursday Afternoon About Four O'clock.

CLOVERPORT AWAITING REPLY

The Cloverport Commercial Club is making arrangements to get the mobile schoolhouses to visit Cloverport next Thursday afternoon when it comes down the Henderson Route.

On account of the smallpox scare Cloverport was left off of the itinerary when it was first arranged. Announcement will be made in the News next week, giving full particulars about the farm train's plans.

Commissioner Newman writes the Club that he would be pleased to include Cloverport if train schedule can be made right.

Marriage Announced.

The marriage of Miss Anna Hewitt and Mr. Robert L. Witt, of Louisville, has been announced. The marriage took place in Jeffersonville February 27. Mr. Witt is a progressive young railroad man and is a locomotive fireman.

NOEL BOARMAN IS NOT GUILTY

Is Acquitted By The Jury In Twenty Minutes--Charged With The Murder of Lewisport Ticket Agent, Bert McCarty--Mystery Deepens.

NO ARGUMENT IN CASE.

Hawesville, Ky., April 3.—After twenty minutes deliberation, the jury found Noel Boorman not guilty of the murder of Bert McCarty, the Lewisport ticket agent, who was murdered on July 11, of last year. The evidence was purely circumstantial on both sides although the defense put up a pretty strong alibi. There was a great deal of interest over the case and the court room was crowded from door to railing.

The case was commenced yesterday and most of the day was taken up with selecting the jury. The case was submitted to the jury today at 3:50 p. m., and the verdict was reached before 4:10.

The case was submitted without the argument of the attorneys for either side. Commonwealth's attorney Ben D. Ringo and County Attorney Jas. R. Higdon prosecuted the case, while E. C. Vance, of Hawesville, defended Boorman. After Judge Birkhead had given the defendant a short talk he was permitted to leave at his pleasure. There was no demonstration of any kind when the jury returned the verdict.

Boorman had been in jail since last July. The ending of the case today deepens the mystery surrounding McCarty's murder.

There will be little more court here. Both grand and petit juries have been discharged. The chief and only jury case so far was that of Noel Boorman charged with the murder of Bert McCarty.

Miss Mary Joiner Not Seriously Injured.

Information was received in Owensboro yesterday to the effect that Miss Mary Joiner, who was injured in an automobile accident at Reynolds, Ga., a few days ago, was not as badly injured as was at first thought, and on the advice of her physicians, she will be brought to her home within the next few days, though she will not finish out the year teaching. Her father is with her and will accompany her on the trip home.—Owensboro Messenger.

REPUBLICAN MASS CONVENTION

At Hardinsburg Saturday. Endorsed Col. Roosevelt And Instructed Delegates To Vote For Judge O'Rear, Combs, And Edwards As Delegates. Barnett And Eskridge From The District

OTHER DELEGATES NAMED

The Republican mass convention at Hardinsburg developed several interesting features. The interest of Pres. Taft was looked after by a combination of federal office-holders and the officials in the court house. Ordinarily such a combination would be invincible and would simply crush out any opposition. In this instance, however, the office-holders were arrayed against the sentiment of the rank and file. Early in the action the allied federal office-holders and court house officials brought their old "promise machine" into operation. The News suspects that there will be some interesting explanations to be made later on.

Mr. Jesse R. Eskridge was the only Republican leader at Hardinsburg who took up the fight for Roosevelt. Before Mr. Roosevelt ever became a candidate, Mr. Eskridge announced, through the columns of the News, that he would advocate the nomination of Col. Roosevelt. Upon this announcement the Taft machine opened up a personal fight upon Mr. Eskridge as well as the ex-president.

The News is not interested in the political affairs of its Republican friends, only to the extent that it desires to give its patrons the news; but we will say for Mr. Eskridge, that he is a fearless political fighter, and has never been found subservient to any ring or political machines. In the contest just past, while the sentiment of the rank and file were largely for Col. Roosevelt yet as far as the politicians were concerned, Mr. Eskridge waged his fight for Roosevelt almost single handed and alone.

We have seen Mr. Eskridge in several conventions and have never seen an indication, even, that he endorses trickery or unfair methods in the convention. He fights from the shoulder out, and while political bosses may undertake to crush him politically, yet the News believes that he has the confidence of the people.

Old Fashion Party.

Mrs. Lucien Chapin was a delightful hostess last week to an all day "tacking party". She had a splendid dinner and her guests tacked fourteen balls of carpet rags for her. The guests were: Mrs. Phil Kramer, Mrs. Bob Pierce, Miss Minnie Simons, Misses Rena and Laura Satterfield and Mrs. Alvin Simons.

AGRICULTURAL TRAIN IN BRECKENRIDGE

Ekron Expecting A Big Crowd To Greet The Special--Car A Small State Fair--Two Cows On The Train And Other Live Stock.

TRAIN HAS CORPS OF EXPERTS

The farm train of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture and the State University will arrive at Ekron Thursday April 18 at 2:30 o'clock and stay two hours. Ekron is showing great interest in the arrival of the special and a large crowd of farmers from Meade and Breckenridge counties, Z. T. Cox & Sons, W. M. Frymire, B. J. Figg and Henderson & Rice, the leading business firms of the town, are doing a deal of personal advertising for the car. They are also boosting Ekron and are planning big days for Ekron. "Come to Ekron" is their slogan and they are getting people's interest aroused in their little town.

Car's Attractions.

E. C. Martindale, of Indiana, grain expert, gives demonstrations of the germinating qualities of the seed corn. Emory C. Dent is on the traveling school advertising the State Fair and will have a souvenir invitation for every body.

The small boy will get to see curious bugs, chickens, a broad-beamed beef and a mammoth sheep. In still another car he would see churns perform feats and go through evolutions that no churn he had seen had ever done; milk buckets with rubber tubes that reached up to the cow and almost did the milking while he looked on, while in the next car he would see a kitchen the like of whose wonders he had never dreamed of, and things being cooked for dinner before his very eye without a spark of fire.

WOODROW WILSON

Gets Majority Of Delegates In Wisconsin. Clark Gets Two Delegates And Third District In Doubt

Milwaukee, Wis., April 3.—Late returns from yesterday's primary summarize the situation as follows:

Wilson is certain of four delegates at large and six district delegations. Clark gets two delegates and the Third district is in doubt. A conflict is probable in two other districts. Clark delegates were elected, but the preferential vote was for Wilson and the Wilson men insist that the delegates follow instructions, despite the personal preference.

It is generally conceded that La Follette defeated Taft by 55,000.

PARRISH RELEASED

Owensboro Bank Wrecker Goes Home A Free Man--Has Accepted A Position In Florida. Only Three Years In Pen.

The commission last Friday released another noted prisoner in the person of James H. Parrish, the former Owensboro banker.

Parrish was serving a five-year sentence at Eddyville prison for receiving deposits after his bank became insolvent. Parrish had been confined for about three years. He was sent up from Hancock county.

TO EVERY YOUNG WOMAN

"The most interesting and important thing in the world for you to do is to work out your own individual life. You must build it from the place where you stand and with the materials in your hands. Nobody else ever stood in your particular place or ever will stand in one identical; nobody ever has or can possess the same materials. You alone can fuse the elements. Hold your place, do not try to shift into the place that another occupies. Keep your eye on what you have to work with, not on what somebody else has. The ultimate result, the originality, flavor, distinction, usefulness of your life depend on the care, the reverence, and the intelligence with which you work up and out from where you are and with what you have"—Ida M. Tarbell in The American Magazine.

FRANK CARTER

Buys Fisher Homestead--Received Deed Last Week. Will Do General And Practical Farming.

Frank Carter has bought the Fisher homestead and farm and received the deed for it last week. Mr. Carter has been negotiating for it several months and has rented it about three years. Since he has been on the place, the farm and home both have been improved. Mr. Carter will do general farming, raising stock and large crops of corn and hay. He is paying particular attention to his orchard and takes much interest in apple raising. "Everything except wheat, I can manage well on this place," said Mr. Carter. "Welcome All" will be a pride of Breckenridge county and in a few years Mr. Carter will have, at least, some of his plane realized. It is good to see this beautiful old place fall into energetic and industrious hands and the community is delighted that Mr. Carter has bought it.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENTS

Collins Residence Beautified. Burns House Improved. Polk Home Handsomely Changed Inside--Other Improvements.

"Cloverport, The Town Beautiful" is the slogan now and every citizen in town is being thrilled by it and are getting to work to improve their homes, pavements and yards. Mr. and Mrs. John Burn are having their house newly painted and a large porch built across the front, giving it a handsome entrance.

One of the sweetest homes in Second Street is that of Mr. and Mrs. Warfield Collins. It is as neat as a pin and when the new veranda is added to its Poplar Street entrance, the house will be all the more attractive.

Mr. Robert Polk is having a splendid hardwood floor laid in the parlor of his residence. One cannot tell which Mr. Polk takes the most interest in, house improvements or flowers. He has a beautiful lot of Easter lilies this year and his yard is a flower garden of green and gold.

MAKING IMPROVED NEST-BOX

Weight of Hen Causes Platform to Tilt, Thereby Closing Door—Size Should Vary.

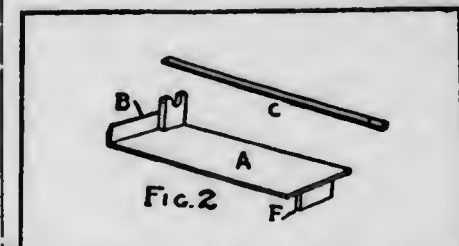

The size of the nest should vary according to the breed, writes Fred L. Bailey in the Farm and Fireside. For the Asiatic breeds it should be not less than 3½ feet long, 15 inches wide and 20 inches deep. The hen enters the nest by walking in on the platform. Her weight causes the platform to tilt, which, by means of the lever attached, closes the door. When the hen leaves the nest, she goes for the light which comes in at the slot door. Her weight on the front end of the platform causes the door to open, and it stays open until she finds food and water and is ready to go back on the nest. The box is best with no floor, so the nest can be made directly on the ground.

Explanation: A, platform, 1½ feet long by which hen enters nest. B, board across back end of platform, on which she puts full weight when entering nest, causing platform to tilt. C, lever attached to platform and door, showing door open. D, point where lever is attached to door. E, point where lever is attached to platform. F, board attached to under side of front end of platform, causing platform to stop on a level when door opens, and helping to balance platform. G, cleats with notches in upper ends for axles of platform to rest in. Notches are 8 inches from the bottom of the box. H, partition board between nest and platform. I, nest. J, cover.

THOUGHTS OF SPRING FEEDS

Birds Should Have Variety, Especially Great Deal Reasonably Rich in Protein—Lime Is Needed.

Apoplexy among fowls is generally confined to the overfat birds and generally the heavier breeds are subject to it. It is, therefore, necessary that the keeper does not feed any great quantity of fat-forming feeds to his birds, especially to the heavier breeds. In the spring of the year more than any other time of the year the birds should have a variety of feeds, and especially a great deal of feed reasonably rich in protein should be included in the ration.

Soft-shelled eggs are usually produced in considerable numbers at this time of the year. The reason for this generally lies in the fact that the birds do not get the proper feed. To form an egg shell the proper materials must be present, and if they are not present the soft-shelled egg is the result.

Lime is one of the necessary materials needed in the formation of an egg shell, and at this time of the year, when the hens are beginning to lay, a liberal amount of lime should be present at all times where they can partake of it when they desire. In providing any kind of feed whether it be vegetable or animal feed, be sure that it is pure and wholesome. Musty grains and rotten meats will cause sickness many times when the flock is in perfect health.

Guinea as Watchers.

A good point about guinea is that they make a good "watch dog." Every person who writes of these fowls mentions this point, but a good thing will bear repeating, in common with wild birds, they are always on the lookout for enemies, and quickly detect hawks, dogs, strange persons, etc., that venture near. Their wild cries on such occasions soon put the intruders to rout, and also put all the fowls on the place on their guard. If hawks are numerous a few guinea in the flock will prove of great help in preventing their depredations.

Laying in Winter.

Almost every hen running at large lays in the spring and lays well. If the poultryman can provide these conditions through winter, his hens will lay then the same as they do naturally in the spring.

Geese Pay Well.

No kind of poultry keeping can be carried on at so small an expense for buildings and equipment as that of raising geese, because of the hardiness of the birds, and their desire to remain in the open air.

Mr. Blank's Mistake

"I made a bad mistake today" said Blank to his wife. "I went to pay that subscription to the daily, which was $5. I found out afterwards that I had handed the agent a $10 bill and didn't notice it until he was gone—guess he didn't either. I suppose that fellow is honest and I'll get my money back, but it'll be some trouble."

"I've been telling you" said his wife "that you should deposit your money in the bank and then pay by check. Then you won't be making such mistakes and having so much trouble."

SARAH BERNHARDT

In Her Masterpiece "Camille" Will Be Seen In The Height Of Motion Picture Production In Louisville

The height of motion picture production is reached in the French American Film Company's presentation of the two glories of the French stage, Sarah Bernhardt in her masterpiece "Camille," and Gabrielle Rejane in her greatest comedy creation, "Madame Sans Gêne." With the variety of motion pictures now being presented on every side, it is difficult to explain the extraordinary qualities of these two series, which are now being shown for the first time in America, and which will be seen at the Shubert Masonic Theatre, (Louisville) for an engagement of one week, beginning Monday, April 8. Matinees will be given daily at 2:15 and the night performances will commence promptly at 8:15.

Comparatively few people on this side of the Atlantic have had the opportunity of seeing either Mme. Rejane or Sarah Bernhardt and the great majority who have never enjoyed this privilege can probably gain a more accurate idea of the work of these two artists through this medium than would be possible in any other way.

The making of these films have engaged the attention of the literary and dramatic world for months past. Not a little difficulty was experienced by the promoters of the scheme in persuading Madame Bernhardt to consent to appear and it was only when she was made to realize that her different character creations could, in this manner, be incarnated and immortalized that she did consent.

Wilson Sentiment Strong

There is no Kentuckian better posted on national politics than Urey Woodson, editor of the Owensboro Messenger, and National Committeeman for Kentucky. In a conversation with the editor of The News in Louisville Wednesday, Mr. Woodson discussed the political outlook in several of the states, showing how favorable it was to the candidacy of Woodrow Wilson. In Indiana the delegates are instructed for Marshall but Tom Taggart is known to favor Wilson as second choice as he knows that the nomination of Wilson will help the Democrats to win the state offices in Indiana. In Pennsylvania both sides are endeavoring to gain party control, by putting up Wilson delegates. In Illinois, Roger Sullivan, by long odds the most influential man in the state, is for Wilson and is going to carry that big state for him. Wilson carried Wisconsin over Clark in the primary Tuesday and on next Tuesday the Illinois primary will be held.

DAMAGE OF THE HIGH WATER DURING THE LAST WEEK

The greatest damage has resulted on the lower Ohio and upper Mississippi streams. At Hickman, Ky., the levee broke and thousands of people were rendered homeless and much property destroyed. No lives have been lost. Illinois, Tennessee, Missouri and Arkansas river towns were likewise heavy losers from the flood. The U. S. government sent tents to the stricken sections to shelter the thousands driven from their homes. Pres. Taft, in a special message to congress recommended that immediate aid be sent the sufferers of the flooded districts and the latter promptly voted $350,000 for a temporary relief fund.

The latest reports are that the streams are receding and all danger is past. The general rains have ceased and people are returning to their homes again.

Later—Press dispatches yesterday morning state that the levee at Cairo, Ill., gave way Thursday, causing eight deaths and damaging the city $5,000,000. 8,000 people fled the city. At Memphis the river is three feet above the high record mark.

"Suffered day and night the torment of itching piles. Nothing helped me until I used Doan's Ointment. The result was lasting."—Hon. John R. Garrett, Mayor, Girard, Ala.

Oil Rigging Moved.

Hawesville—The Snowden oil prospecting rig has been moved here from Caney Creek, four miles from town, where a deep well was put down with out results. An eighty-foot derrick is now up, and the work of boring on the high school property in town will begin at once. The Messrs. Snowden are from Indianapolis, who have many paying wells in both Indiana and Pennsylvania.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. Two sizes, 25c and 50c, at all stores.

Getting Proposals.

I am up against it good and strong this year. Am sorely in need of an Easter hat. Our subscription to the News is out. The question is shall we go bareheaded this year or do without the home paper. Oh well, darn it, we will take the paper if we have to go barefoot!

RIVER NEWS

Ohio On A Stand-Still--Last Rise Until June--Navigation Suspended--Show Boats Coming--Launches Will Be Built Here.

The river has reached a stand here and will slowly begin falling. According to old river men, this will be the last rise of the season, even the June rise will hardly materialize owing to the lateness of the rainy season. This will give the low creek bottoms plenty of time to produce good crops.

Show loving people will this season have more shows on the river than usual. Several of the boats have remained in the south and will show on their trip up and then come back later in the season. All the boats now are presenting high class plays and as soon as the callopo turns loose on "Away Down South In Dixie", it will be the same old rush for reserve seats

Owing to the high water, navigation is about all suspended. The Lee Line will not send out any boats for several weeks on account of so many landings being under water. The Louisville and Evansville Packet Line continues to make trips. As soon as the water recedes, a large amount of coal will start South on the big water.

The Golden Girl is doing a good excursion business out of Owensboro. Sunday she took out a crowd for Evansville. Every since she has been in commission she has had big crowds out and is proving to be a money maker.

Several new launches will be built here this summer.

97 PER CENT. PERFECT

An Unusual Record For A Pile Remedy.

When Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, of Lincoln, Neb., located the cause of piles and found a successful irward remedy for piles, he had it put on sale under a strict guaranty of satisfaction. In ten years only 3 per cent. of HEM-ROID users have asked for their money back, and it speaks well for this scientific modern remedy. Get a guaranteed $1 package from A. R. Fisher or any druggist, or write to Dr. Leonhardt Co., Station B., Buffalo, N. Y., for free HEM-ROID booklet.

Rev. Mr. Hudson Dead.

The Rev. Leslie H. Hudson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Owensboro, died of a complication of diseases, Friday night. He leaves a wife, who was Miss Jane Fleming Brodie, and two children.

Mitchell--Boyd.

Miss Louise Mitchell, age nineteen, and Frank Boyd, age eighteen, were married in Evansville last Saturday morning. They will make their home with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boyd in Owensboro. The bride and groom are popular young people of Owensboro.

THE PEOPLE, NOT THE POLITICIANS SHOULD RULE

In view of what happened last Saturday all over this state the Democratic State Executive Committee ought to grant Judge S. W. Hager's request and order a preferential primary election for choosing delegates to the National Democratic Convention. Every Democrat who has the welfare of his party at heart and is willing that a majority of the voters shall rule should join in this request. It is the right thing to do and the best thing. The News is for Wilson first, last and all the time, but if he is not the strongest man it will stand by the will of the voters. Conventions are a farce, so far as the will of the people is concerned. The will of the politicians is not the will of the people. The Democratic politicians are now in Kentucky actually dictating to the rank and file of the party who shall be the nominee. Let the people and not the politicians rule.

SCHOOL SUFFRAGE FOR WOMEN.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Sec. 1. That all women possessing the legal qualifications required of male voters in any common school election, and who in addition are able to read and write, shall be qualified and entitled to vote at all elections of school trustees and other school officers required to be elected by the people, and upon all school measures or questions submitted to a vote of the people; and all women possessing the legal qualifications required as to males shall be eligible to hold any school office or office pertaining to the management of schools. Provided, however, that this act shall not apply to any election the qualifications of the voters at which are otherwise prescribed by the Constitution nor to any office as to which the Constitution otherwise prescribes the qualifications of the persons eligible thereto.

Sec. 2. In all places where a registration of the qualified voters is now or may hereafter be required women who are, by this act, qualified to vote shall be registered at the same time and place and by the same officers and in the same manner as male voters; their registration, however, being made in a separate book to be furnished by the county clerk as is prescribed by law in the case of male voters. And all the provisions of law relating to the registration of male voters are hereby made applicable to the registration of women qualified to vote by this act.

Sec. 3. When the elections referred to in Section 1 of this act are held on the same day with the State, county or city elections, separate ballots, similar to those required in other elections, except that they contain only the names of candidates for school officers or questions relating to schools, shall be provided for women voters qualified under this act; otherwise the elections shall be held according to the provisions of the general election law.

No. 55. Law—when to take effect—emergency clause. No act, except general appropriation bills, shall become a law until ninety days after the adjournment of the session at which it was passed, except in cases of emergency, when, by the concurrence of a majority of the members elected to each House of the General Assembly, by a yeas and nays vote, entered upon their journals, an act may become a law when approved by the Governor; but the reasons of the emergency that justifies this action must be set out at length in the journal of each House.

BOWMAR FOR WILSON.

Editor Bowmar of the Woodford Sun decides for Woodrow Wilson. He writes editorially:

"The Sun has been in no haste to announce its preference in the Presidential race. Being entirely free from prejudice against any of the Democratic candidates, and equally free from prepossession in favor of any one, we have had no desire except to speak a word for that man whose nomination would be most advantageous to his country and to his party. We have, at different times, regarded first one and then another of the candidates with favor, being desirous to get at nothing but the truth.

The result of all this has been our final conclusion that Woodrow Wilson is the man whom the Democratic party should nominate, not only in the interest of the party itself, but also in the interest of the country."

NO VOTES FOR CLOVERPORT WOMEN YET!

Cloverport's women are disappointed. They thought by the school suffrage bill for women passed by the last General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky that they would get to vote for school trustees at the coming election. The bill is published herewith in full, also law No. 55. The bill has no emergency clause, therefore, our women will not get to vote this year. The election of school trustees will take place the first Saturday in May. The names to be dropped this year are those of Messrs Will Pate and J. D. Seaton. Besides these two, our other trustees are: Chas. Hamman, M. Weatherholt and John M. Gregory. Now, you women cannot vote this time, but you can remind your husbands to vote. Lets have a rousing school election and keep up interest in it until the first Saturday in May.

"Don't be the author of your own lonesomeness" is what the Ben Franklin Club of Louisville wrote to the Master Printers of Kentucky in extending to them an invitation to attend the First Kentucky Cost Congress. This meeting is held in Louisville tomorrow.

The purpose is to form a State organization of printers, it is an endeavor to put the printers of Kentucky on the same plane with the printers of other States through the systematic study of costs and efficient methods. This is a great movement and will be the foundation stone of the school of teaching Kentucky to appreciate the value of perfect printing. Printing is one of the greatest arts of the world today and it is one of the great forward movements of progress. If you do not use the art of printing in your business, in your clubs, in your churches and all other enterprises, you will be lonesome as certain as the April showers.

The deaths caused by tuberculosis in Breckenridge county is becoming appalling. Last week four victims of this terrible disease were reported in the News and one this week. Our county is as healthy as any place—we have as much sunshine and fresh air as most counties. We believe our people ought to take better care of themselves and make it their mission to avoid this horrible germ. Plenty air in the sleeping room, and plain substantial food with proper exercise ought to lessen the death rate made so large by tuberculosis.

That was wonderful work the men did in saving Mayor Barry's house from fire Monday afternoon. The roof broke out in flames a few minutes before five o'clock and in less than thirty minutes the men had it under control. Cloverport's fire-fighters are surely the best ever—and we wish we had some kind of a fire department to assist them. The fire was caused by a defective flue and discovered by a small colored girl. Considerable damage was done to the roof.

Don't let anything except illness or death, keep you away from the traveling farm school next Thursday. It has eight cars, six of them rolling school-houses with expert teachers to give us a two hours lesson on anything from keeping a clean kitchen to raising live stock. And get acquainted with Commissioner Newman, who is at the head of the agricultural department and doing so much for the development of our State.

We announce this week our new serial, Excuse Me by Rupert Hughes, author of The Old Nest. Any one who has read this charming little book will with eagerness look forward to reading, Excuse Me. This serial is as funny as The Old Nest is sweet and appealing. We take pains as well as money to purchase for our readers, serials that entertain and are from the best writers.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Gibson and daughter, Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fitch, Isabelle Burn and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hamman, of Cloverport, attended church here Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Hamman and son, Robert, of Cloverport, were the guests of Mrs. P. D. Hawkins last week.

Miss Mary Basham was the guest of relatives last week and attended the Choir Social Saturday night.

Will Gibson, of Sample, was in town Sunday.

Mrs. Jane Gibson, of Cloverport, was the guest of Mrs. Bennett Sunday.

Dr. Shively has purchased a gasoline launch.

Rev. C. R. Shephard preached his farewell sermon Sunday night to a large audience. We regret to give him up and wish him success in his new field of work.

Quite an enjoyable affair was that at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Dix Saturday night, when they were host and hostess at a choir social. The house was beautifully decorated in white and yellow. Fifty guests were present. During the evening music and games were enjoyed and delightful refreshments were served in the dining room at 10:30 o'clock, with a souvenir for each guest. Violin music was rendered by Ernest Greenwell accompanied by Miss Esther Payne. Also reading by Miss Leilah Hawkins and a solo by Rev. C. R. Shephard, accompanied by Mrs. O. W. Dowell.

Miss Bettie Bryant, of Tell City, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Blaine.

Mrs. E. A. Smith, of Pine Hill, was Mrs. Shively's guest Sunday.

ERNEST HASWELL

Sticks to His Brush and is Steadily Progressing in His Art—Will Go to Paris in June—Writes Fine Article.

Hardinsburg, Ky., April 8.—(Special.)—Ernest Haswell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Haswell, was at home a few days last week from Cincinnati, where he has been an art student for several years. Mr. Haswell's talent un-resting because of energetic ambition through these years, has asserted itself from the first. Last year he won the Louise Ingalls scholarship for merit. For some time he has been the assistant of Clement J. Barnhorn, a sculptor of national reputation. He has just finished four life-sized figures for the Newport Theatre.

His literary ability give ready expression to his knowledge of art. Already has his pen produced articles that have attracted attention among art lovers—one of his productions was recently reprinted in an European art journal. The June number of The International Studio, the greatest art journal published in the English language, will contain Mr. Haswell's article, "Criticism of the Society of Western Artists' Exhibit."

About August he will leave Cincinnati and sail for Paris where he will spend a year or more in work and study. His study will include visits to different art museums, where the originals in both ancient and modern art so richly abound.

Have money in the Bank and be ready for a good Business chance

The first and greatest consideration in investing money is to put it where the principal sum will be SAFE BEYOND ALL QUESTION, and where you will always be able to get it if you want it. The rate of interest should be fair, but no difference in the rate of interest can compensate for even the slightest degree of uncertainty as to getting back the principal, AT ANY TIME and without sacrificing any part of it.

A man is in a bad box who has his money tied up in some investment which he cannot quickly "turn." We take good care of "commercial," as well as savings accounts.

ANOTHER DEATH

From Tuberculosis—Mrs. Marion C. Jackson Dies At McQuady. Leaves Husband And Three Children.

Pearl, wife of Marion C. Jackson, died at McQuady, April 4 and was buried at the Tarfork Christian Church Burying Ground April 5. For two years she had been in poor health and for fourteen months had been a hopeless sufferer from tuberculosis. Her beautiful christian character made her cheerful as she approached death. Her death's sting was the regret of leaving husband, her two little boys, her little daughter and her relatives and many friends. Aside from this pain of separation, death was but a release from pain and entrance to life eternal.

Mrs. Louis H. Jolly will return Tuesday from a visit to her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Cunningham, at Chenault.

Mr. John Akers, of Hardinsburg, was in town Friday in the interest of the Republican convention at Hardinsburg Saturday.

Mrs. Belle Brunir, of Chicago, is the guest of Mrs. J. B. Herndon.

DEATH AT EASTER.

Mrs. Phoebe Skillman Called After Useful Life and Devoted Motherhood—Devout Member of Baptist Church.

Hardinsburg, Ky., April 8.—(Special.)—On Easter eve the beautiful spirit of Mrs. Phoebe Skillman wended its flight to heaven.

One more is added to the "choir invisible," and by the call of the life of this good woman to a life up higher, earth has lost one of its loveliest daughters.

Mrs. Skillman was born Aug. 8, 1841. She was married to Benjamin Franklin Skillman who died when her children were quite small.

Her life was not lived in vain, for she was mother to four different families of children who loved her and honored her to her death.

Two children survive her, Mrs. James Withers, of Kirk, and Mr. Alvin Skillman, of this place, at whose home she died.

She divided her time with her children, spending half the time with each. Her declining years were marred by ill health, being a subject of organic heart trouble, which eventually caused her death.

Two sisters and one brother survive her. She was a member of the Baptist church, never making loud her professions, but living quietly the faith she professed.

Rev. Gatlin conducted the funeral services at the Baptist church at this place, after which the remains were taken to the family cemetery on her son's farm. She is survived by a number of grandchildren, three of whom live in the West.

PAPER BAG COOKING

Great System Perfected by M. Soyer, Famous London Chef.

DINNER FOR WEEK-END GUEST.

By Martha McCulloch Williams.
To show you still further what is possible with paper bag cooking, I am giving the menu of the latest paper bag cooked dinner that I served to guests. And since all the guests were women, I knew that the menu was used for me to excel myself. This would make a good menu to serve to the week-end guest.

Menu.
Canteloupes a la Vierge
Roast Quail Sliced Baked Ham
Celery Salted Nuts
Asparagus with Cheese Mushrooms
Spiced Apples Sweet Plum Pickle
Banana Short Cake, Foam Sauce
Claret Punch Assorted Fruit
Black Coffee

The quail were stuffed each with a fat raisin, a pinch of seasoned bread crumbs and a dot of butter, then wrapped in the thinnest possible slices of streaky bacon, tied so it could not slip, and the birds put in a well buttered bag and cooked for twenty-five minutes in an oven at first hot, but moderate throughout the last half of the cooking.

The ham I did not bake in a bag. The salted nuts of course had been bag-cooked.

Asparagus came out of cans, since fresh asparagus is not in season. After the quail were cooking, the asparagus was put, points foremost, in a thickly buttered bag, with a dusting of black pepper and a very little salt, also the strained juice of a large lemon and a lump of sweet butter the size of a walnut. It was cooked twelve minutes in moderate heat, taken up in portions and served on hot plates.

The mushrooms were fine, fat and fresh. It was joy to peel them, to nip off the stalks, wipe them delicately with a damp cloth, sprinkle very lightly with salt and drop in a thickly buttered bag along with a lump of extra butter rolled in salted flour and a gill of real cream. After sealing the bag the contents were cooked twelve minutes in a fairly hot oven.

For the banana short cake I first sliced small ripe banana. Very thin, added sugar and lemon juice to them, a bare grate of nutmeg and a tablespoonful of sherry. They stood on ice while I made up the paste. It required half a cup of well-creamed butter, one cup sugar, two well-beaten eggs, a teaspoonful of baking powder and a pinch of salt, both sifted well through a pint of flour, and a teaspoonful of vanilla. It was mixed as lightly as possible, rolled out less than half an inch thick and cut into rounds about four inches across. These were brushed over with melted butter, laid one on another and baked inside a buttered bag laid flat upon a trivet. The cooking took a little more than twelve minutes. The rounds when they came out were separated, a little butter laid upon the soft top of the bottom one, then the prepared bananas in a thick layer, after which the top was clapped on.

The foam sauce was double-flavored. Its foundation was fresh butter creamed with twice its bulk of sugar and softened by beating in gradually half a gill of boiling water. Alternately with the water, there was added hot lemon juice, the beating being fast and furious as it went in. Then a teaspoonful of vanilla was beaten through the white of an egg, until the white was as stiff as possible, and the mixture stirred lightly into the butter and sugar.

SWEETBREAD RECIPES.

By Nicolas Soyer, Chef of Brooks' Club, London.

Escalop of Sweetbreads: Trim a sweetbread and cut in four pieces. Trim four large mushrooms and tomatoes. Roll the sweetbreads in flour and put it between the mushrooms and tomatoes. Butter well your paper bag and arrange the above nicely in the middle. Place one teaspoonful of bread crumbs on top. Cover with a slice of fat bacon or ham cut very thin. Flavor with sweet herbs as desired. Seal bag and put on broiler in hot oven. Allow twenty to twenty-five minutes.

Sweetbread (Fancy Method): Half a small onion, one slice of carrot, a little ham, fat and lean, and a little of the trimmings, all cut in small dice. A small bunch of sweet herbs and thyme, parsley and bay leaves. Put these on the bottom of the paper bag which should be well buttered. Lay your sweetbread, if desired, and around it put three or four mushrooms and two or three tomatoes, skinned and all seed removed. Add a tablespoonful of stock, Madeira or sherry, according to taste. Seal bag. Put on broiler. Allow twenty-five minutes in a hot oven.

It color and thick sauce are desired mix a quarter of a teaspoonful of arrow root with the vegetables and a little burnt sugar coloring. When you open the bag, remove the sweetbread gently. Place on dish. Remove tomatoes, mushrooms, etc., and place around it. Put the whole of the remaining contents of the bag, juice included, in a strainer and press with a wooden spoon into a clean hot basin standing in boiling water. Pour the gravy thus obtained over the sweetbread.

THIS YEAR'S AEROPLANES.

Features of New Models Exhibited in Paris Salon.

NO FREAK MACHINES SHOWN.

Green or Slate Color Used With the Object of Making the Aeroplanes Invisible in the Air—Protection Against Rifle Fire.

There are no freak machines on view at the Aviation salon this year, according to the Paris correspondent of the London Daily Mail. There is a marked preference for the fish or torpedo outline. The surface of the wings has decreased, and progress has been made in reducing everything that offers wind resistance. Wood is generally being discarded in favor of steel and aluminum.

Nearly one-half of the aeroplanes shown are green or slate colored, with the object of making them invisible in the air. In several cases the air men are protected against rifle fire. The attempt made last year by the Paulhan biplane which was acquired by the war office, to obtain flexibility of wing, is repeated this year, though to a less extent, by the biplane shown by the German Albatrosswerke, which, in addition to a wooden chassis of unusual construction, has very flexible edges to its birdlike wings. The fact that there are only fifteen biplanes to thirty-nine monoplanes in the show indicates the predominant position for military purposes at present held by the monoplane, but there is on view more than one biplane which possesses important merits from the military point of view.

Among the latter machines, besides the Albatross, may be mentioned the Savary with its two tractor screws and the Sloan, which follows in its lower plane the curving of a bird's wings and has big allersons which are said to give it an exceptional sliding angle. Allersons (movable panels attached to the edge of the wings), by the way, seem nearly extinct. Even the biplane makers who used to try them in all sorts of shapes appear to have dropped them this year and to rely on warping instead.

Several firms show the impressive engine rooms of airplanes, and there is one complete airplane, the Astra.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper and remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Brookline Still the Richest Town.
The Brookline (Mass.) assessor's report for the year just closed shows that the town is still holding its reputation of being the richest town in the world and of being richer by far than thousands of cities. Pere Marquette Wants Courtesy in Telephone Conversations.

The use of the word "hello" has been tabooed in telephone conversations along the line of the Pere Marquette railroad.

In commenting on courtesy among telephone users the Pere Marquette Monthly Magazine says: "It is obviously true that that which is the correct thing to do in a face to face conversation also is correct in telephone conversation. Any one but has to apply the rules of courtesy prescribed long before the telephone was thought of to know the proper manners for telephone usage."

SUMMONED PENN'S SONS.

But as They Have Been Dead Century or More They Didn't Appear.

Beyond the shores of the River Styx, the shades of the sons of William Penn probably chuckled derisively when, with unflinching observance of court customs, they were solemnly summoned to appear in common pleas court No. 4. In Philadelphia, in answer to an advertisement which appeared in Philadelphia papers a trifle more than a year ago. The sons of the founder of Pennsylvania certainly did not read the notice. The longest lived of them has been dead about 150 years, says the Philadelphia Press.

After this burlesque-like routine was gone through with and the ancient worthies, except Richard and John Penn, who held title to nearly all the land in the state, failed to appear, attorneys for Randolph W. Birdsall, a property owner, whose land was originally held by the Penns and who under present conditions is supposed to owe the Penns ground rent, moved that the claim of the Penn brothers be made void because they had not appeared to defend their claim.

The unwinding of this voluminous roll of red tape was made necessary by an oversight when the state wiped out the Penn ground rents in 1759. In that year all the land still belonging to Proprietor Penn was bought by the state, and this act in itself wiped out all ground rents on land in Pennsylvania.

Birdsall owns property at 161 North Front street, on which ground rent was supposed to be owing to the Penn heirs. When the ground rents were wiped out no record was made of the redemption of that on Mr. Birdsall's property. The law required that a record of each redemption be made in regular legal form.

Hence John C. Hinekey, attorney for Mr. Birdsall, instituted legal proceedings to repair the defect in Birdsall's title and he summoned the Penn brothers into court to prove that the rent is owing to them. An advertisement was published November a year ago summoning the Penn brothers to appear for this purpose.

"My little son had a very severe cold. I was recommended to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and before a small bottle was finished he was as well as ever," writes Mrs. H. Silks, 29 Dowling Street, Sydney, Australia. This remedy is for sale by all dealers.

For Women Who Care

Of course you use an antiseptic in your family and in the care of your own person, and you want the best.

Instead of what you have been using such as liquid or tablet antiseptics or peroxide, won't you please try Paxtine, a concentrated antiseptic powder to be dissolved in water as needed.

Paxtine is more economical, more cleansing, more germicidal and more healing than anything you ever used.

Paxtine
ANTISEPTIC

In the toilet—to cleanse and whiten the teeth, remove tartar and prevent decay. To disinfect the mouth, destroy disease germs, and purify the breath. To keep artificial teeth and bridgework clean and odorless. To remove nicotine from the teeth and purify the breath after smoking. To eradicate perspiration odors by sponge bathing.

As a medicinal agent for local treatment of feminine ills where pelvic catarrh, inflammation and ulceration exist, nothing equals hot douches of Paxtine. For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co. has been regularly advising their patients to use it because of its extraordinary cleansing, healing and germicidal power. For this purpose alone Paxtine is worth its weight in gold. Also for nasal catarrh, sore throat, inflamed eyes, cuts and wounds. All druggists, 25 and 50 cents a box. Trial box and testimony of 31 women free on request.

Instinctive mimicry.

Why if one man on the street takes out his watch do others do the same? Among the very early instincts recognized in the human mind are mimicry and curiosity. Mimicry develops into habit, as when we see many persons walking faster than we do we gradually fall into their gait and in time this faster gait becomes habitual with us. Every instinct enemies from one or the other of the fundamental instincts, self preservation and vice preservation. Every action that benefits the human being can be traced back to the instinct of self preservation, and among these actions are the acquisition of knowledge, even the knowledge of the time of day.

Instinctive mimicry creates an impulse which in the case of the man looking at his watch upon seeing another do the same, is supported by another instinct, curiosity, and by the human faculty, reason. We therefore follow the impulse and look at our watch.—New York American.

The Whole World Is to Participate In the Great San Francisco Panama-Pacific Exposition In 1915

By HAMILTON M. WRIGHT.
THE whole world is interested in the opening of the Panama canal and in the great international festival which the United States will celebrate the completion of the canal, the Panama Pacific International exposition, to be held in San Francisco in 1915.

The proclamation of the president, issued by authority of congress, has been delivered through the instrumentality of the department of state to every quarter of the globe. Inquiries as to the exposition are pouring in upon the exposition management from all parts of the world. The nations of the world in recognition of America's great

huge Grecian columns adorned with the flags of all the nations of the world and surmounted at convenient intervals by classic arcades. At the junction of these two streets will be erected a civic center. The buildings in this architectural group will cost close to $9,000,000. The nucleus of the civic center will be a new city hall to take the place of the one destroyed in 1906. The exposition authorities have voted the sum of $1,000,000 for a great auditorium to accommodate visitors to conventions during the exposition. A great opera house will be erected by private capital at the civic center, and the famous singers of the world will be heard in San Francisco in exposition achievement at Panama are preparing for participation in the exposition upon a more comprehensive scale than at any of the greatest of former world's expositions.

The foreign nations will be represented by the finest assemblage of displays that the world has seen. The strange tribes and peoples of Pacific ocean countries will participate in a wonderful week's festival in which the nations of the orient will take part. The most marvelous parades ever witnessed will be seen on the streets of San Francisco.

The commonwealths of the United States, each of which as a member of the Union has taken its part in the building of the canal, will be represented by the most magnificent state displays ever assembled. California has dedicated more than $20,000,000 to the nation's fair, and the city of San Francisco, the west and the nation are co-operating to render the exposition one that will express in every way the pride and patriotism of the American people.

The Panama-Pacific International exposition will be the greatest exposition in the history of the world. A notable commission of architects of national reputation is engaged upon the plans, and within a few weeks first construction work will begin, when grading of the site and the building of a sea wall, which will serve in part as the basis of a magnificent esplanade along San Francisco harbor, commences.

Among the noted architects who are designing the wonder city which will rise from the shores of San Francisco and will be visible in detail to passengers on ships entering the Golden Gate.

The site of the exposition takes every advantage of the combination of harbor and hills that gives San Francisco its chief charm. The main features of the exposition will be located at Harbor View, on San Francisco bay midway between the ferry building and the Golden Gate, and the permanent buildings to remain after the exposition is over will be erected in the west end of Golden Gate park, which fronts on the Pacific ocean. These sites and intermediate locations will be connected by a marine boulevard that sweeps from Harbor View through the Presidio to the Golden Gate and then turns south to Golden Gate park. A trackless trolley will take visitors over this magnificent scenic boulevard from Harbor View through the military reservation at the Presidio, where the government is planning a wonderful military display, to Golden Gate park, and one admission will include entrance to both features. The site expresses the maritime character of the great celebration. In harmony with the exposition San Francisco itself will be an exposition city in 1915. The parks and water front of the city will be improved at an expenditure of millions of dollars, and the ferry building, the main entrance to San Francisco, will be adorned with a grand court of honor. Market street and Van Ness avenue, the two main thoroughfares of San Francisco, each running from the bay and meeting in a V in the heart of the city, will be decorated with days. Great saengerfests in which the choral societies of foreign countries participate will be held upon the exposition grounds.

The Panama-Pacific International exposition will open with a pageant in San Francisco harbor of the battle-ships of the navies of the world. The foreign vessels will first assemble at Hampton Roads, where, joined by ships of the American navy, the entire fleet will be reviewed by the president of the United States and foreign dignitaries. This fleet, the largest ever assembled, will then proceed through the Panama canal to the harbor at San Francisco, where it will participate in the most spectacular naval demonstration ever witnessed. San Francisco in 1915 will see the flags of more nations than have ever been brought together in one place at any one time. From unofficial assurances now received it is anticipated that 100 foreign battleships in addition to those of the United States navy will be gathered in San Francisco harbor.

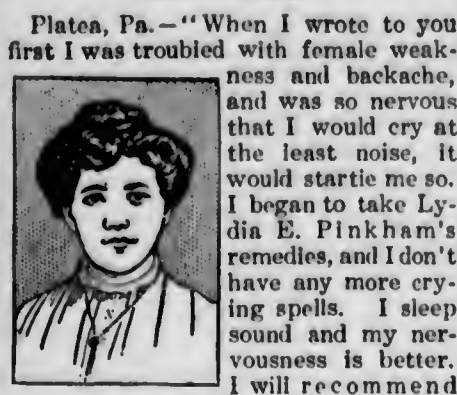

A huge commemorative edifice, in purport like Bartholdi's statue of Liberty, will welcome vessels from afar. The structure, to be known as the St. Francis Memorial tower, will be 550 feet in height, with a base 220 feet square. The shaft will be eighty-five feet square, with corners rounded, and of steel construction and terra cotta veneering. The approximate cost of the tower will be $1,000,000. From its summit the sightseer will look almost straight down upon the waters of the Golden Gate, 1,300 feet below.

NERVOUS DESPONDENT WOMEN

Find Relief in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound — Their Own Statements So Testify.

Platen, Pa. — "When I wrote to you first I was troubled with female weakness and backache, and was so nervous that I would cry at the least noise, it would startle me so. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies, and I don't have any more crying spells. I sleep sound and my nervousness is better. I will recommend your medicines to all suffering women."

— Mrs. MARY HALSTEAD, Platen, Pa., Box 98.

Here is the report of another genuine case, which still further shows that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be relied upon.

Walcott, N. Dakota. — "I had inflammation which caused pain in my side, and my back ached all the time. I was so blue that I felt like crying if any one even spoke to me. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I began to gain right away. I continued its use and now I am a well woman."

— Mrs. AMELIA DAHL, Walcott, N. Dakota.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

ODD OLD CHOCTAW LAWS.

One Made the Selling of Their Land a Capital Crime.

In an old set of laws of the Choctaw Nation there is a clause which relates to the killing of witches. For witchcraft the penalty was death, and for alleging oneself to be a witch or for saying that any other person was one was punishable by sixty lashes on the bare back.

Another declared that no doctor could take money or any of the belongings of a patient he treated if the patient died. If the patient were raised up from a sickbed the doctor could accept what was offered to him, and if nothing was offered then he could take in goods what was his just compensation.

In 1834 the Choctaw council passed an act which made a person who bargained to sell any of the Choctaw land a traitor and punishable by death. Any white man who encouraged such action was deported. An Indian who sold or disposed of land either to individuals or to the United States in toto should be considered a traitor and shot on conviction. This was just preceding the beginning of the work of the Dawes commission.

You will look a good while before you find a better medicine for coughs and colds than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only gives relief—it cures. Try it when you have a cough or cold, and you are certain to be pleased with the prompt cure which it will effect. For sale by all dealers.

A Woman's Reason.
"Why," asks the inquisitive person, "do you enjoy having some one tell you that you are pretty when you know you are not? Does it make you believe that you are?"

"No," she answers readily. "But it makes me believe that he believes I am."—Judge's Library.

GIVE COLORED MAN A SQUARE DEAL

Says Col. Roosevelt In His Fifteen Minutes' Address To The Colored Voters In Louisville--Advice To Both Races That Makes Good Citizens.

WHERE SQUARE DEAL CAME

Col. Theodore Roosevelt had the largest and most enthusiastic gathering ever given a Republican candidate for the Presidency by the voters of Louisville. Before his speech at Phoenix Hill, he made a fifteen minutes talk to the colored voters at Odd Fellows' Hall. For the benefit of the colored readers of the Breckenridge News, an extract from his splendid brief address is given as follows:

After a few introductory remarks Col. Roosevelt opened by stating that the doctrine he was preaching was applicable to all men, and peculiarly applicable to the dealings between white men and colored men. He then referred to good citizenship and said:

"I cannot say too strongly that the man who is a good citizen benefits us all. The good colored citizen benefits his own race immeasurably and in doing so benefits the white race. If the colored man wins the respect of his own race he makes it easier for the rest of his race to be treated as they ought to be treated by their fellow beings. If he acts right his white neighbor will say, 'he is the right kind of a man.' The man that forces that kind of praise is the man that is a benefit to his own people. In your life there are lots of things that are disagreeable. Remember that each and every one of us has things in life that are disagreeable. Face them bravely and you will win out. The white man ought to put every premium in the way of acknowledgment for the colored man when he acts as a decent man should. The white man who does not show this acknowledgment is not only doing wrong to the colored race but to the white race as well."

Origin of "The Square Deal"

Col. Roosevelt stated that he first used the expression "a square deal" in an address to colored men.

"I said," stated Col. Roosevelt, "all that a man ought to ask is a square deal, and that is all he ought to get. I feel that the white man owes it to himself to encourage the colored man who is doing right."

Col. Roosevelt ended his address with a wave of his hand and a cheery "Good Luck."

FIRM FOUNDATION

Nothing Can Undermine It In Cloverport.

People are sometimes slow to recognize true merit, and they cannot be blamed, for so many have been humbugged in the past. The experience of hundreds of Cloverport residents, expressed publicly through newspapers and other sources, places Doan's Kidney Pills on a firm foundation here.

W. M. Johnson, prop., of restaurant, Cloverport, Ky., says: "I still use Doan's Kidney Pills and I consider them an excellent kidney remedy. You are at liberty to publish my former endorsement of them. For six years I was afflicted with kidney trouble. I had pains in the small of my back and was lame when I got up in the morning. I tired easily, felt languid and was nervous. Dizzy spells and headaches also bothered me and the passages of the kidney secretions were too frequent, obliging me to get up at night. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me great relief."

Miss Nita Beard, of Louisville, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Beard.

Mrs. R. Y. Maxey and her sister, Miss Lida Guilbreath, left Saturday for Mays Lick, where they will spend the summer.

Hon. Gus. Brown was in Frankfort last week on legal business.

Rev. G. W. Thomas, colored, for two years pastor of the colored church here, left Saturday for Bowling Green, to which place his Conference lately assigned him. He is followed by Rev. J. W. C. McCoomer, who comes from Cynthiana.

Moorman Ditto, after closing his school at Union Star, is at home.

Mrs. Heber Roberts is ill of pneumonia.

Mrs. Daily Beard and children and Miss Emma Ahl are visiting relatives in Louisville this week.

Mrs. G. W. Evans has a large line of high-class millinery.

Miss Nealya Mattingly, who is attending St. Romuald's school here, visited her parents in Cloverport Saturday and Sunday.

The entertainment at the High School building on April Fool evening, given by the junior class, was highly enjoyed by a goodly sized crowd notwithstanding the inclement night. The amusements were appropriate for the occasion.

Hon. John P. Haswell, of Louisville, was at home last week for several days.

Only last year was he transferred to the National Capitol.

Beautiful and stylish spring millinery at Mrs. G. W. Evans.

The severe cold of the past winter killed the young hedges, which were beginning to beautify a great many Hardinsburg yards.

County Surveyor R. M. Basham, of Vanzant, who was in town Saturday, reports plenty of work in his line.

If the time ever comes in this county when the Republicans know they are going to carry for the county offices, they will owe Jule Jackson, of Tarfork, any nomination he wants. In the past they have not meted to him according to his deserts. He is too good a man to hold until they see defeat staring at them, and when nominations go begging. To name him then would be to sacrifice, in adversity, a man who merited a reward in prosperity. His teams all busy plowing Saturday, he walked in to the convention, supported Taft, but in a spirit that meant the other man a hearing and a right to his choice.

Mr. Brabant, photographer of Cloverport, has opened a studio at Hardinsburg over Walker's bakery, and will be there Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

large delegation for Roosevelt.

J. N. Akers brought in a bunch of Taft men from Irvington, and Tite Adkins headed a big delegation for Roosevelt.

The Roosevelt men wore white badges and the Taft men big red buttons.

Talk about your Democratic conventions, but this one beat any thing ever pulled off by the Democrats—for a live one.

The Democrats were jubilant over the wide-open split.

Sherman Ball seemed to have, and did have, everything going his way.

The Taft men were afraid of the yard, and we don't blame them.

The Republicans are certainly good scrappers.

Rolly Meador had to mount the bench two or three times to keep his name off the Roosevelt delegation. He said he simply wouldn't stand it and off she went.

David Phelps declined the secretary's place in the Rump Convention. He had enough.

Delegates were only worth $1.50 and railroad fare to Hardinsburg at Irvington.

Isn't it fun to see the other fellows scrapping?

We really feel sorry for Bro. Stone. But he got in his speech in spite of the noise.

Sherman Ball was the happiest man in the convention after the fight was over.

inundated; thirty persons drowned, and a financial loss of $10,000,000 constitute the result of a two weeks' flood in the Mississippi Valley. These figures were arrived at last night by Government engineers and officials of State Levee Boards engaged in battling the raging sweep of the Mississippi and Arkansas.

Hundreds of persons still are menaced by the tide of the river at points in lower Missouri, Northwest Tennessee and Arkansas. They are marooned in house tops, in trees and on anchored rafts directly in the sweep of the rampaging river.
